John 19:26-27

26 When Jesus saw his mother there, and the disciple whom he loved standing nearby, he said to his mother, "Dear woman, here is your son,"

27 and to the disciple, "Here is your mother."

From that time on, this disciple took her into his home. (NIV)

GOD BLESS AMERICA!

Today's Message Outline:

How to love your mother John 19:26-27

1. Tell her you love her. (I John 3:18).
2. Love her with your care. (John 19:26-27).
3. Love her with hugs and kisses.
4. Love her patiently (I Cor. 13:4).
5. Love her with time, listening and attention.
6. Love her generously.

What should I give my mother today?

Who You're Meant To Be

"Be who God meant you to be and you will set the world on fire." Quoting those words of St. Catherine of Siena, the Bishop of London began his message to Prince William and Kate Middleton at their wedding in Westminster Abbey. Many watching on TV were deeply touched as the bishop affirmed their choice "to be married in the sight of a generous God who so loved the world that He gave Himself to us in the person of Jesus Christ." Then he urged the couple to pursue a love that finds its center beyond themselves.

From Romans 12, the bride's brother read: "I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and perfect" (vv. 1-2 NRSV).

That royal wedding reminds us all, single or married, of two great truths: (1) God's great love for us expressed in the sacrifice of Jesus and (2) God's desire that we find life's greatest joy and transformation in our relationship with Him. Aren't those the keys to becoming the persons God meant us to be?

Jackson, a 5 year old Kindergartner was asked by his Mother what he thought it would be like to walk with God. "It would be good and God would be nice to you. It would be like walking with a guy with a long coat on and it would look all white and bright around. And it would feel good because you are walking with someone who is nice to you and loves you." His Mom asked him why God is nice and Loves him and he said, "because he saves you." His mom says to him, "you are pretty smart". He replies "Been smart since I was a baby".
